

Diocese of Armagh

Diocesan Cycle of Prayer 2015

(incorporating Anglican Cycle of Prayer)

If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land. 2 Chronicles 7:14

THE Armagh Diocesan Cycle of Prayer for 2015 is presented in a similar format to previous years. I have not made any changes believing that when we become familiar with a format we find it easier to use. Again Readers and those from the diocese who are in training for the ordained ministry are included in the prayers for the parish in which they are based or have come from.

I have also included Holy Days on the Sunday on which they occur. Those that occur during the week are shown in brackets on the Sunday during which week they occur. Included in this edition are days through Holy Week, Ascensiontide, and throughout Advent and Christmas.

The prayers for the Anglican Communion are adapted from 'The Anglican Cycle of Prayer 2015', and although it is not consistent in the amount and type of information it gives about various Provinces of the Anglican Communion I have included selected information that I feel may inform our prayers. Due to the constant changes in posts held throughout the world-wide church almost any publication can be out of date even before it is published.

The posts held by individuals mentioned in this publication are correct as of published date. This information can be verified and updated at the Anglican Communion Web Site at <http://www.anglicancommunion.org/acp/index.cfm>

While this publication is entitled 'Armagh Diocesan Cycle of Prayer' it is not written in stone; it is simply a guide to help us remember one another, and the wider Anglican family in prayer. Adaptation locally is important and essential.

Please accept my apologies for any errors or omissions. Your comments, suggestions, updates and prayers are welcomed as we seek to improve this important aspect of our family life, our Common Prayer. I can be reached by e-mail (preferably) at revdjohnny@gmail.com or by mail to Clonfeacle Rectory, 4 Clonfeacle Road, Benburb, Dungannon, Co Tyrone, BT71 7LQ.

The rhythm of common prayer is core to our Anglican identity, and is a regular reminder of our interdependence as the Body of Christ, and of the primacy of love and unity. Through our prayers may we hold fast to God, one another, and the Anglican family of Churches world-wide.

2nd APRIL — MAUNDY THURSDAY

*When Jesus wept, the falling tear in mercy flowed beyond all bound;
when Jesus groaned, a trembling fear seized all the guilty world around.*

Almighty and everlasting God, who, of thy tender love towards mankind, hast sent thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, to take upon Him our flesh, and to suffer death upon the cross, that all mankind should follow the example of his great humility; Mercifully grant, that we may both follow the example of his patience, and also be made partakers of his resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

3rd APRIL — GOOD FRIDAY

*For me, kind Jesus, was thy incarnation, thy mortal sorrow, and thy life's oblation;
Thy death of anguish and thy bitter passion,
for my salvation.*

*Therefore, kind Jesus, since I cannot pay thee,
I do adore thee, and will ever pray thee,
think on thy pity and thy love unswerving,
not my deserving
J Heerman*

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified; Receive our supplications and prayers, which we offer before thee for all estates of men in thy holy Church, that every member of the same, in his vocation and ministry, may truly serve thee through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen
