

Diocese of Armagh

ON-LINE TRAINING AND SUPPORT DIARY

MARCH TO JUNE 2021

For children: March 28th to Friday 2nd April, 2021: “Journeying with Jesus”.

Across each day of Holy Week, a 5 minute children’s talk on “Journeying with Jesus” will be hosted on the diocesan website. Do encourage your wee ones to have a look! www.armagh.anglican.com

For parents:

Led by the Youth and Children’s Development Officer a series of three “stand alone” Zoom sessions supporting parents and carers. Simply email David Brown doycarmagh@gmail.com to book in for each one hour session. Please note, all evenings begin at 7.30pm.

15th April: “Left to their own devices?” Supporting children and teens regarding safe online activity.

13th May: “Understanding your adolescent...supporting development, addressing behaviour, building faith”.

10th June: “Nurturing your child’s faith at home. Ideas, support and resources for parents and carers”.

For Clergy/Parish Youth leaders:

The Diocese of Armagh in partnership with the Church of Ireland Youth Department is delighted to offer a three session “Aurora” training package with a practical focus on Youth ministry and mission going forward. All evenings begin at 7.30pm for an hour. To book in please do drop me an email to doycarmagh@gmail.com

22nd April: “Getting practical. Ideas and resources for outdoor youth ministry during the summer”.

20th May: “Building back...Ideas and resources for Confirmation practice”.

16th June: “Establishing the foundations...A Biblical approach to Youth Ministry and Mission”.

For more information and to book in for any of these sessions, please email or call David Brown on 07557 655 860 or doycarmagh@gmail.com