

Church of Ireland Diocese of Armagh

EASTER GREETINGS

“He is not here, He has Risen!”

Matthew 28 verse 6

Dear Bishop Aimé and Clergy and people of the Diocese of Gitega,

The Lord is Risen: He is Risen indeed; Hallelujah

As we approach the celebration of Easter Day, as your partner Diocese, we wish to send greetings to you, our brothers and sisters in the Body of the Risen Christ.

As we, like yourselves, in our own parishes and diocese, sought to draw our people more fully into the sacrifice of the Lord during Palm Sunday and Holy Week, we pray with you, that together we will grow closer still to Jesus Christ in our daily lives in the power of His resurrection love this Easter Day.

We look forward to our continued partnership with you in the Gospel and to visiting you in September this year where friendships will be made and renewed, and we will have the opportunity to build one another up in the faith of Lord of Glory as we share koinonia together.

May the joy of the resurrection fill all your hearts this Easter and send us all out to love and serve the Lord Jesus.

In Christ, on behalf of the clergy and people of the Diocese of Armagh.

+John Armagh